Overview:

Rocky Mountain Youth Corps engages youth in the outdoors, inspiring them to use their strengths and potential to lead healthy, productive lives. Members will spend a two-week session serving on meaningful conservation and community development projects. These sessions operate in Routt county, and welcome youth from Routt and surrounding counties. Sessions include one “in-town” week where the crew participates within the community (or close by) M-F 7:45am-4pm and go home at night. The second week is spent camping and serving outside of town Sunday-Friday, 24/7. Projects may include trail building and maintenance, fencing, noxious weed eradication, painting, or building small structures. Crews will be composed of 8-12 youth and are led by two adult Crew Leaders. Crews will camp and work in a variety of changing weather conditions. All corps members will participate in project work, daily camp chores (camping week) and educational and recreational activities throughout the week.

Essential Position Functions:

- Ability to live and serve closely with a diverse group of people for 2 weeks.
- Physical ability to be outside for 6-8 hours a day swinging a hand tool. (No prior experience is required- members will be trained.)
- The position may require extensive bending, lifting, pushing, stooping, carrying and other heavy physical labor for extended periods of time.
- To maximize the experience, the use of technology is not permitted during the workweek.
- Rocky Mountain Youth Corps’ programs are drug, alcohol and tobacco free.
- The nature of the work environment requires that corps members utilize appropriate safety equipment such as leather gloves, hard hat, long pants, sturdy boots and protective glasses.

Qualifications:

- Motivation, a positive attitude, and a general interest in conservation work
- Ability to sleep in a tent and work in a variety of weather conditions (rain, snow, sleet, and hail!)
- Must be committed to be away from home for a week camping outdoors
- Able to hike 2-3 miles in a day

Community Crew Member is an exempt seasonal position and offers no benefits
